"JOURNEY OF LIGHT"

Lighthouse News

from the WGM & WGP

Ahoy! We have attended twelve wonderful Area Visitations so far. We have had lots of fun and gotten to know many of our members better. You have shared many success stories with us and we are anxious to share them with the membership. You might want to try these:

GOOD IDEAS:

1. HAVE A "BIG RED MADNESS" NIGHT IN SEPTEMBER.
2. HAVE A GOLF OUTING AND A PICNIC.
3. TRY AN EASTER BONNET CONTEST.
4. NAOMI CHAPTER HAD A GREAT FUND RAISER—A TOUR OF HOMES. CALL THEM FOR THE DETAILS.
5. OSHKOSH HAS A POLISH LUAU IN THE CITY PARK.

We need candidates to be initiated at Grand Chapter, so if you have a name, please call Cathy at the Grand Chapter office or the Worthy Grand Matron. Remember that the eight spots are on a first come/first serve basis, so let us know right away.

Oceans of love,
Cyn and Mike

LEADERSHIP

Our Worthy Grand Matron and Worthy Grand Patron are planning to hold a Leadership Workshop at the Hastings Masonic Center in Hastings. The date is Saturday, February 28, 2004 from 8:30 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. This workshop is for all interested Eastern Star leaders and members throughout the state. We'd like every chapter to be represented. Watch the OES NEWS for the details!

Leadership is a "Journey"—Don't miss the boat!

Membership

The Membership Committee still needs the names, addresses and email addresses of all college age members. Please help your secretary secure these college addresses and send to:

Roijeanne Wolfe

FROM THE GRAND SECRETARY

The response to the Walk to Cure Diabetes was so overwhelming that I will not be able to send acknowledgement cards to everyone who gave a donation. Please know how much all of the Grand Officers and other members who walked appreciate your contributions. A complete list of those who gave to this project will be in the proceedings. Thanks to all of you.
