

Dear Sisters and Brothers,

This year's School of Instruction, like most of the Enduring Hope Grand year, is different.

During the past year, there have been many things that were different and many disappointments. But as Rev. Martin Luther King, Jr. said, "We must except finite disappointment, but we must never lose infinite Hope".

Our Enduring Hope is that you will learn today; you will enjoy seeing and hearing each other today; you will gain Hope today that we, as an Order, have persevered.

Thank you to our Worthy Grand Matron and our Worthy Grand Patron to ensuring that has happened.

Star love,

Laurie Sieg
